Our Parish Life

Beginnings Valentine's Day Dance-A-Thon Thursday, February 14 at Noon

Instead of an Annual Appeal or Walk-a-thon as our winter fundraiser this year, we are going to have our first-ever Valentine's Day Dance-a-thon. We are raising money to resurface our playground to ensure the safety of our children at Beginnings, Calvary, and the surrounding community. Not only do we encourage everyone to join in the fun, but we also hope your family, friends, and neighbors will help support our goal of raising $5,000. You will receive a letter in the mail requesting a donation within the next few days. We thank you in advance for your support and generosity! For more information, please call Tammy Lewis at 412-661-3025 or email Beginnings@calvarypgh.org.

The Bookstore at Calvary

Signed copies of the new book by The Rev. Cn. Harold Lewis, Ph.D., Rector Emeritus, It Is Well with My Soul: Messages of Hope for the Bereaved are available in the Bookstore with a discount.

February is Black History Month and the Bookstore has a selection of titles to commemorate including Tears We Cannot Stop: A Sermon to White America by Michael Eric Dyson. A look into the state of race relations in the United States, delivered as a hard-hitting sermon on the racial divide, directed specifically to a white congregation.

The Bookstore is open Sunday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and Tuesday through Thursday 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Cash, check, Discover®, MasterCard®, and Visa® are accepted.

Adult Inquirers' Class

Confirmation for adults will be offered on Sunday, May 5 at 5 p.m. during Bishop Dorsey McConnell's annual visitation. Confirmation is the sacramental affirmation of one's Christian faith in the presence of a bishop. Preparation for adults interested in confirmation consists of a class that will meet at 6:30 p.m. on March 4, March 11, March 18, March 25, April 1, and April 8. The class will explore what it means to be a Christian in the Episcopal Church and in the Anglican tradition.

If you are new to Calvary or the Episcopal Church you are particularly welcome to attend these classes. If you're not particularly new to Calvary or the Episcopal Church but are interested in deepening your understanding you are welcome as well.

We'll begin with the celebration of the Eucharist at 6 p.m. in the Lady Chapel. After the Eucharist, we'll gather for a soup supper and fellowship followed by a talk by a member of the clergy and small group discussion.

If you are interested in attending or have any questions about the class or about Confirmation, Reception, or the Reaffirmation of Baptismal vows contact the Rev. Neil Raman at nraman@calvarypgh.org.

"Food of the Month"

East End Cooperative Ministry operates the second largest food pantry in Pittsburgh. On their wish list for February is dry cereal. Of course, you may donate any food item. Please leave your items in the shopping cart in the Parish Hall.

Hospitality Hour after the 11 o'clock service

There are open dates in March and April that need hosts! Consider hosting a Sunday to mark a special occasion, honoring a particular event or person or asking your group or organization. Please sign up on the display in the Parish Hall or contact Judy Wootten at 724.733.1660 or by email – jcwootten@comcast.net – to schedule a Sunday. Thank you!

Altar Flowers

Help us keep the church in full bloom by donating flowers in memory of, or in honor of, someone special. If you would like to place a memorial listing, please contact Kim Pieratt in the church office at 412.661.0120, ext. 111.

The Sheldon Calvary Camp Service

The Sheldon Calvary Camp Service is an informal celebration of the Holy Eucharist that meets in the Refectory at 3 p.m. on these Sundays: February 24, March 24, April 28, and May 26, then we take a break for the summer. The Rev. Leslie Reimer is the celebrant, and we use music from the Camp songbook. Mark your calendars and join us when you can.

Lenten Meditations Booklet

To help you prepare for Lent, free copies of the 2019 Lenten Meditations booklet are available on the table in the Parish Hall, and on the tract racks. Written by faith leaders throughout the Church and published by Forward Movement for Episcopal Relief & Development, the meditations feature reflections from writers about their own spiritual growth and Lenten disciplines.

Calvary Lenten Theological Reading Group

During Lent this year the group will read Revelations of Divine Love by Julian of Norwich. Julian was a late 14th century Englishwoman and mystic whose text is the earliest surviving book in English to have been written by a woman. She was an anchoress and was well known and highly regarded as a spiritual teacher and mentor by many during her lifetime. You may recognize her most famous quotation: "...All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well." The text is both theologically deep and very approachable. We will be meeting in the Evans Room from 7–9 p.m. on Wednesday nights in Lent for five weeks, beginning March 13, 2019. The text will be available in the Calvary bookstore by late February. Please contact Jamie McMahon if you have any questions or to sign up for the email list at jamie.mcmahon@gmail.com.

Holy Baptism

The sacrament of Holy Baptism will be offered at the Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 20, 2019 at 8 p.m., the Feast of Pentecost, Sunday, June 9 at the 9 a.m. Garden Service, and on the Tenth Sunday after Pentecost, August 18 at the 9 a.m. Garden Service. If you or someone you know desires to partake in this sacrament please contact the Reverend Neil Raman (nraman@calvarypgh.org or 412.661.0120, ext. 112) as soon as possible, so that the appropriate preparation and arrangements can be made.

Camp Kesem

Camp Kesem is a national organization that provides a free week of summer camp to kids whose parents have been affected by cancer. Transportation is available to and from camp from Pittsburgh. If you or someone you know is interested in participating you can sign up by going to kesem.force.com. If you have any questions you can reach out to Neil Johnston (wneiljohnston@gmail.com) or pitt.outreach@campkesem.org.

Bag It Documentary Film

The documentary film Bag It will be shown at Calvary on February 27, 2019 at 7 p.m. Bag It follows the filmmaker as he learns how plastics affect our oceans, our climate and our bodies. Sponsored by the Social Justice and Outreach (SJO) Committee of the Pittsburgh Episcopal Diocese and What's SUP – Single Use Plastics – an area-wide ecumenical committee, the evening will also feature a speaker who will discuss plastics-related issues in our region.

Prayer List Update

An important part of our worship at Calvary is the opportunity to pray by name for people in need. We pray for members of our congregation and for many others for whom our prayers are requested. On the First Sunday in Lent, March 10, 2019, we will make a fresh start with the Prayer List included in the Sunday bulletin.

In order to keep our prayers current and focused, we are asking for your help.

If there is someone whose name you would like to have on the list, please give that information to Kim Pieratt at kpieratt@calvarypgh.org – or to Leslie Reimer at ltreimer@calvarypgh.org, or by phone at the church office. The renewed list will include only the names which have been sent to us. We are glad to keep people on the prayer list for as long as necessary, because we know and understand that many needs are on-going. Whenever someone is ready to be removed from the list, we ask that you let us know. Thank you for your help.

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah [6:1-8, (9-13)]

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the LORD sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the LORD saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" [And he said, "Go and say to this people: 'Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.' Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed." Then I said, "How long, O LORD?" And he said: "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate; until the LORD sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land. Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled." The holy seed is its stump.]

Psalm 138

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
- 4 When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD,
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- 6 They will sing of the ways of the LORD, *
that great is the glory of the LORD.
- 7 Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly;
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- 8 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.

- 9 The LORD will make good his purpose for me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians

{15:1-11}

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you – unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them – though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

{5:1-11}

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, LORD, for I am a sinful man!” For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
