Being the Church together at Calvary

On Saturday, September 10, Calvary partnered with three local Presbyterian congregations to march to raise awareness of gun violence in our city. Since the beginning of the year, 80+ people have died as a result of guns in Pittsburgh. Each of the four churches are sharing part of a display, called Memorial to the Lost, to draw attention to it. There are 20 t-shirts on display at the entrance to Calvary and the other congregations. Each shirt, a powerful symbol, represents one person killed by guns in Pittsburgh with the person's name and age.

Members of each congregation processed from Valley View Presbyterian (near the Neighborhood Academy) to Eastminster to East Liberty Presbyterian concluding the march at Calvary.

During the march, I was able to speak with many people I had not seen since the pandemic began. One of them was my old friend Ann Belser who is the owner of Print, a newspaper for the East End of Pittsburgh. She proudly told people she has the best job in the world covering local news. She then told anyone who would listen that I (Jonathon) have the second best job in the world as Rector of Calvary, because of the community of which I am a part and the creative ministry we do together engaging the city. I might argue about first or second best, but agree with her because of who we are and what we do to serve our neighbors together.

It feels like we are emerging more from the pandemic to be a refreshed version of the community we are and the one God has called us to be. To help with that transition, it is my intention to foster opportunities for us to be together again socially and in occasions for deepening our faith in Jesus and loving and serving our neighbors together.

What follows are highlights of why I agree with Ann that I have the best job in the world (for me) and opportunities for Calvary people to be together to worship, learn, and serve in the upcoming months. More detailed information will follow in Friday emails and Agape issues.

Monday, September 12 – Beloved Community Initiative Sacred Conversations on racial reconciliation with weekly Monday meetings.

A Priest and a Rabbi Walk into a Classroom

Beginning on Sunday, October 9 at 10 a.m., Rabbi Aaron Bisno and the Rev. Jonathon Jensen will teach a class together on the parables of Jesus. We will learn together from Jewish and Christian perspectives and how we all might benefit from this wisdom.

The classes will be in person in McClintic Hall, also known as the choir room, on Sundays from 10 a.m. to about 10:45 a.m. Classes will be held each Sunday through December 18 (No class on October 30 due to the Bazaar, or November 27 on Thanksgiving weekend). Sessions will also be recorded and available on Calvary's YouTube page with a link in the Friday email. All are welcome to attend. ■

Rally Day

Thank you to all who helped and participated in the Rally Day and Ministry Fair such a successful event. Cameron and Michael received a warm welcome to Calvary. People all over were buzzing with positive energy and expectation for the future. It was wonderful to see so many people connecting and reconnecting and having a great time together.

Many people signed up to participate in the numerous ministries Calvary offers. We invite and encourage you to sign up and participate to know one another and love God and serve our neighbors together.

Thank you in particular to the Parish Council, Kim Pieratt, Weezie Wells, Ken Smith, and the rest of the church staff for the organization and set up.

The Parish Council conceived of the idea, gathered gifts for Cameron and Michael, organized event, and helped with the cookout and registration. Thank you to all the members of the Parish Council and its chair, Sue DeWalt.

Rally Day is a type of welcome back to church after a long summer and much longer COVID-tide. The Ministry Fair is to learn about and volunteer for different opportunities (formation, fellowship, and service) at Calvary.

We had a great cookout and potluck to enjoy being together. Thank you to everyone there. ■

Coffee with Cameron+

I am delighted to be now living in Pittsburgh and to have joined the staff at Calvary. I am looking forward to exploring this great city and learning about this parish over the coming year. My responsibilities as the Associate Rector include overseeing pastoral care and the young adult ministry.

Please contact me for either of these areas. Additionally, being new, I very much want to get to know the people of Calvary! I invite you to email or call me to find a time for us to meet over coffee or tea. I want to get to know you and hear your stories. I can be reached at csoulis@calvarypgh.org or 412.661.0120 ext. 123.

Get Involved with the Soup Group

There are several ways to be a part of this ministry.

Come to cook! We will be cooking on Friday, September 23 and Friday, September 30, starting at 9 a.m. We will be making soups, casseroles and a few baked goods. Please let me know if you are going to be there so I can plan accordingly.

Cook at home! Contact me for containers and labels. Use your own recipe or I can supply one of ours.

Deliver soup! Please take soup to a friend, neighbor or relative. Our soup is not for Calvary members only! We also have started to make casseroles that are available for deliveries. There are some small cakes and cookies that might be enjoyed by a person living in a facility where meals are provided.

Make a donation to the Soup Group! Money donated will be used to purchase ingredients and containers. Checks can be made out to Calvary with Soup Group in the memo line.

Any questions? Contact me. Thank you!

Calling All Readers

Are you someone who loves to read? Maybe you are a perennial student. Maybe a seasonal reader who enjoys reading on the beach or by the fireside when you are confined indoors during the winter.

I am sure that each of you, who treasure books and reading have memories like this one, involving special people who read to you and even the special circumstances where and when that happened. One of the favorite parts of our liturgy, for many of us, is when the lessons are read, and the Gospel proclaimed. The meaning and understanding of words matter to Christians.

I want to invite those of you who love to read to join me in a new ministry I want to launch at Calvary in the Fall. It is to be a ministry of public reading offered to people who bring their brown bag lunch to the nave at Calvary. It will take place during the work week, once a week around noon. The readings will be curated and designed to last about a half hour. They will be selected broadly across many forms of literature and across the ages.

If you have ever visited a monastery for a personal retreat, you may have been exposed to this practice. A member of the community reads to the others and the guests at the main meal. At one point in history the church and especially the monasteries were the repository of western knowledge.

Calvary has long supported similar interests. We have a bookstore in our church. That bookstore sponsors a significant annual used book sale. At any given time, there are several reading groups engaged in study at Calvary. I am hoping we can together focus this shared interest with our local community and in so doing help keep the city of Pittsburgh, through great literature, a city excited by the imagination and inspired by the creative.

Stay tuned...

Foyer Groups Return to Calvary

Groups of 8-10 people gather for an informal dinner in someone's house or apartment 2 to 3 times between September and May. Dinners are simple, potluck style with the host providing the main dish and others bringing appetizers, wine, salads, bread and desserts.

Russ and Kathy Ayres, Adam Hallowell and Catherine Davidson have volunteered to act as organizers for this year's Foyer Groups. If you'd like to host a group or participate in a group, or if you have questions before deciding, please get in touch with either Russ at rwayresiii@gmail.com, Kathy at kayres@chatham.edu, Adam at adam.hallowell@gmail.com, or Catherine at cmd402@gmail.com.

We have 60 people already registered. ■

Spiritual Reflection – C. S. Lewis and Ross Gay

Adult spiritual formation may be described as the step-by-step discovery of God's presence in our lives and our personal transformation along the way. Calvary's Spiritual Reflection meetings continue to be a regular and familiar forum for small group peer ministry. We share, reflect upon and discuss inspirational ideas that develop and deepen our personal relationships with God and with one another. Meetings are group-led, and no preparation is required. Our interactions follow the Principals for Contemplative Dialogue of the Merton Institute for Contemplative Living.

Every few months, we choose as a guide the writings of a different author. At each meeting, a short reading serves as a catalyst for reflection upon, and discussion of, God in our daily lives.

For September we are using C.S. Lewis: Readings for Meditation and Reflection but in October we will turn to Ross Gay, author of four books of poetry and short essays. From his website, "Ross Gay is interested in joy. Ross Gay wants to understand joy. Ross Gay is curious about joy. Ross Gay studies joy. Something like that." Our group will use The Book of Delights, a New York Times bestselling book of essays celebrating ordinary delights in the world around us. You may want to check out an interview about the book in a February 2020 episode of NPR's Living on Earth.

Meetings are held in the Evans Room from 7–8 p.m. on the first and third Tuesday evening of each month. The meetings are hybrid, allowing "in person" conversation while using Zoom so others can join remotely. Upcoming meetings will be on September 20, and October 4 and 18. Email Matt Muldoon (mattmuldoon@msn.com) or Sondra Krimmel (sskrimmel@gmail.com) for information or to be added to the email list. Please feel welcome to join at any time. ■

Holy Baptism

If you, or someone you know, desires to partake in this sacrament, please contact the Reverend Neil Raman at nraman@calvarypgh.org or 412.661.0120, ext. 112) as soon as possible, so that the appropriate preparation and arrangements can be made. ■

Beginnings Preschool News

We kicked off our school year with our back-to-school picnic and it was a huge success! We had a wonderful turnout on Thursday, August 25 when staff, students, and their families gathered to join in an afternoon of community fun. Billy Heh was our Balloon Artist and Blaster Bouncer provided the inflatable slide/climbing wall/bouncy house (I highly recommend both!)

September 7 was our first day of the school year. Beginnings is a diverse, inclusive, team-oriented preschool. We currently have fifty-six students enrolled at Beginnings. Nineteen of our students speak languages other than English: Arabic – 1, Armenian – 1, Greek – 1, Italian – 1, Japanese – 6, Korean – 3, Mandarin Chinese – 1, Nepali – 1, Polish – 2, Spanish – 2. Many of our teachers speak other languages as well: Amharic - 1, Korean - 2, Nepali - 1, and Portuguese - 1. We will welcome Ms. Tetina, a Ukrainian refugee, as a new teacher later this month. Ms. Daria, also from Ukraine, will be working as her translator until she gets acclimated. We will introduce all our teachers and board members next month.

Aline Friere is my new Assistant Director. With a degree in Early Childhood Education and over 9 years of teaching experience in Brazil and Australia, she brings a myriad of culturally diversified experiences into our classrooms. Aline has strong skills in writing policies and procedures, meeting health and safety standards, curriculum development, assessing students, online platforms for communication, and team training. She has a personal commitment to help disadvantaged children through volunteer work.

Hanna Seong is a teacher on our Yellow Team. She invited Beginnings teachers and their families into her home on September 10 to help her celebrate Chuseok, which means Korean Thanksgiving. We had a wonderful time together enjoying many traditional Korean dishes and we plan to do more of these events this school year.

Our teachers are spending their first six weeks creating a classroom community, a place where our children feel safe and are welcomed and valued as individuals and members of a team.

We're off to a great start and we can't wait for the rest of the year to unfold.

—Tammy Lewis, Director ■

MUSICAL NOTES by Alan Lewis

On Rally Day, September 11, it was thrilling to play the Calvary organ again after so many months of silence or reduced capacity since the lightning strike in July 2021. Restorative work continues at this writing, but substantially more than half of the instrument is playing, the electronic communications between the keys and the valves that admit air to the pipes now being accomplished by fiber-optic cable, that will not conduct electricity in the way the old copper wire did in the (many) lightning strikes that frequently disabled the instrument over the past 30 years.

A large part of the work has been to replace portions of the organ console undamaged by the lightning, but incompatible with the new electronic system. These are the “stop-jams,” the diagonal arrays of knobs by which the organist selects the sounds that the various keyboards will produce. Jon Tyillian, who is both our assistant organist and a part of the company doing our repair work, personally designed and created the new “stop-jams,” as these arrays are called; they are far more elegant in appearance than their predecessors, and also afford us far more flexibility in the control of the instrument than the originals did. (Jon’s dual expertise in both playing the organ and constructing the mechanism is of huge value in this, and I am immeasurably grateful!)

Another thrill that week was to be back in the stalls with the choir, after an unusually long period in the south transept – our typical summer home, but one to which we relocated early when the organ fell silent for the repair work. It’s a mixed blessing, for I know that the choir’s sound is somewhat impeded in its journey to the congregation’s ears by the rood screen – but in a building like this, it is, for better or worse, where the choir “belongs,” and where we are best able to do our part in the liturgy.

That word – liturgy – is a catch-all for all the aspects of our common prayer: words, ritual acts and movement, music, everything. It comes from a Greek word that (during the era of Vatican II and the liturgical reforms of the 1960s) was often translated as “work of the people.” That is a worthy interpretation: We all have a part to play in the collective worship of God. Another reading of the Greek word is also valid, rendering it as “public work,” in the same sense as a highway or an aqueduct, or any other project that would be beyond the means of any smaller entity than the whole populace, the public, to accomplish. Similarly to the first translation, it points to the necessity of collective engagement – but it also allows a sense in which that work is accomplished by some on behalf of all. In a moment when church attendance is at last beginning to resurge in the wake of Covid, it might be helpful for us all to think of our once more taking our part in the “work of the people,” and on behalf of the public, as we praise and pray to the God whose worship is our highest purpose. ■

The Bookstore at Calvary

The Bookstore and Bookshop.org

Here is now another way you can support the Bookstore, which is a member of the Episcopal Booksellers Association as well as an independent bookstore, when shopping for books. As an alternative to Amazon, go to www.bookshop.org, which gives independent bookstores tools to compete online and financial support to help them maintain their presence in local communities. On the home page in the upper right corner, click Choose a Bookstore, then type in zip code 15206 and pick Calvary Bookstore. Bookshop.org will ship your books from their wholesaler's warehouse (usually within 2-3 days) directly to you, handle the customer service, returns and overhead, and the Bookstore at Calvary will receive a small stipend! Help the Bookstore maintain its presence not only as an Episcopal bookstore, but also an independent bookstore with a share of direct-to-home online book sales. Other suggestions to support the Bookstore:

- Always try to buy directly from the Bookstore when you can!
- Get the word out! Tell your friends and family, and post on social media: Let book buyers know there's a better way to buy books online.
- #maketheswitch and link directly to our website at calvarypgh.org/the-bookstore-at-calvary or Bookshop.org instead of Amazon.

The nursery is open to children ages two weeks - 3 years old during Faith Formation Hour (10 – 10:50 a.m.).

During the 9 and 11 o'clock services, 4-year-olds are welcome to stay. The nursery is not equipped for children ages five and up.

Where is the nursery located?

The nursery is located on Level A (the classroom level).

When is the nursery open?

The nursery is open from 8:45 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. while parents/guardians attend services, formation classes, or sing in the choir. Within that time, parents/guardians are welcome to come and go as needed. Many parents pick up midway through the service so their children can be present for Communion.

Can we visit before I leave my child in the nursery for the first time?

Parents/guardians and their children are always welcome to visit, see the room, and meet the caregivers.

How is the nursery staffed?

There are two primary caregivers who have worked in the nursery for over a year. Everyone who works in the nursery has clearances to work with children (PA criminal record check, child abuse history clearance, and FBI background check), and has completed Safeguarding training. They are paid for their time and participate in in-service training at the start of the year.

Do I have to bring my child to the nursery?

What if something happens while my child is in the nursery?

You may choose to leave your cell number with the nursery workers who will text you if necessary. You also have the option of using a pager which will be signed out to you when your drop off your child. You will be paged if there is any need for you to return to the room.

Do I need to sign up?

You don't need to sign up beforehand. The first time you bring your child to the nursery, you will be asked to fill out a registration sheet with some basic information about your child. These are kept on file securely, and the information is only shared with the nursery staff.

Coming in October!

9 a.m. Beginning Sunday, October 2 (Oct-May)

Children ages 3* – 9 years old

*Children should be capable of returning to their parents with minimal assistance

Children's Liturgy of the Word is a time for children to gather to pray, ask questions, and hear the good news of God's love. The Sunday scripture readings are proclaimed and explained during the 9 a.m. Sunday Service on a level appropriate to children ages 3-9. Any child in this age group may participate – no registration is necessary.

Children are invited to gather with adult leaders after the Opening Prayer and process to the Refectory. After a brief Welcome and Opening Prayer, they listen to the First Reading proclaimed from the Children's Lectionary. They are then led in singing a Psalm and Gospel Acclamation. Next, the Gospel is proclaimed by one of the adult leaders. The leader shares an age-appropriate reflection on the Word, and the children are invited to share their own thoughts and ideas. Following this, the children profess a simple Act of Faith, pray their Prayers of Intercession, and finally return to their families at the time of the Peace.

Calvary will be offering in-person Confirmation Preparation classes for students entering 8th and 9th grade (ages 13+), beginning September 18. Sessions will meet on Sundays 10 – 10:50 a.m. in the Calvary Conference room. Register online on the Calvary website.

"Pack to School" Project

The Women of Calvary is again sponsoring "Pack to School" for Lincoln School in Homewood. The program has had great success in providing much-needed items for students. This school year, we are asking for uniforms, school supplies, hand sanitizer, sanitizer wipes, and Kleenex.

School Supplies: Backpacks, pencil cases, #2 pencils, colored pencils, erasers, pens, 1-subject notebooks (wide-ruled), composition notebooks, 1" 3-ring binders, 3-hole punched folders with pockets, tab dividers, white filler paper (wide-ruled), crayons, markers, school glue, glue sticks, rulers, and kids scissors.

Uniforms: Khaki or navy blue pants, shorts, skirts, and dresses; yellow, white or blue tops. Sizes 5-20, XS-XXL

Monetary donations are also encouraged. Checks can be sent to or dropped off at the church, and should be made payable to Calvary Episcopal Church; please add "Pack to School" on the memo line. To volunteer to help or for more information, please contact Tammy Lewis at 412.661.0120 ext. 132 or tlewis@calvarypgh.org.

We will be collecting donations throughout the month of September. Thank you so much for your generosity! ■

Notes from the Archives

In 1975, the Women of Calvary oversaw a makeover of what is now the Evans Room. As part of the planning, the WOC board called a special meeting in March of that year. Board members discussed needed changes to the room, which was then called the "Ladies Parlor." One of the changes suggested was a new name.

"It was thought that the name was kind of old fashioned on the one hand, and that 'The Ladies Lounge' sounded too much like a 'bar and grill,'" according to a letter signed by WOC board president Jean Robinson and found in Calvary's archives.

The WOC board requested the Vestry to rename the room after a family who had made a significant contribution to the parish or its recent building program.

The Vestry chose the name 'The Evans Room' in honor of the family of parishioner Evelyn Evans. Her parents were Howard Salisbury Evans and Evelyn Fawell Evans. Her brother was Thomas Raymond Evans II, and her sister, Laura Evans Ford. The family had attended Calvary for more than 50 years and, according to an article in the April 9, 1975 issue of Agape, had maintained a quiet, loyal, low-profile role at the church. The rector, the Rev. John Baiz, dedicated the room that month.

More than 70 women contributed gifts to the room's refurbishment. In November 1993, the Vestry reported that Evelyn Evans gave the grandfather clock now in the Evans Room. ■

Betimes

Billowing Bellows, Batman: Power put to re-awakening organ on first day of September. First bleats the day after. Next, bombast from the Bombarde. By Rally Sunday, better than 95% of eastern instrument divisions sound out. Still no west gallery, but ... The wind is up! Thar she blows!

Brrrr: Ice machine busted. Bad timing. Warm beverages in warm weather bemoaned. Supply chain issues balk replacement. Best bet? Store-bought bags and bidding time. Bummer.

Bonanza! Book store sale beats record, boasting best buying spree by far. Bounty benevolently benefits regional literacy programs. No spelling Bees?

Burgeoning Bunch of Benches: Another addition to sturdy seating array deployed in Swan garden, the benefit of our continuing film-plastic recycling program. Sharing the bounty, over half of all units awarded so far gifted to others.

Beginnings – More Than a School Name: Official welcome of new Associate Rector Cameron Soulis+ and husband Michael Salmon coincide with years-absent Rally Day of sign-ups for myriad ministries at Calvary, even as Beginnings (yes, the school) starts another year. All things are new.

Behold.

The Crop Hunger Walk, sponsored by Church World Service, will be held in Pittsburgh's East End on Sunday, October 9, 2022.

The CROP Hunger Walk is more than just a yearly gathering or event for me. It is my chance to help families who are struggling with hunger and concerned about where they'll find their next meal. The Walk is how I take action to make sure that one more person has enough to eat.

I want to help as many people as I can and would love your support. Please join me in the fight against hunger by making a donation! The steps we take - and the funds we raise - support programs that provide meals in my community and long-lasting solutions to hunger around the world.

Last year we raised $24,000. 75% goes to CWS and 25% stays here and used to support our local community. Please check out the website and see all that CWS does. If you are inspired to participate in the walk you can sign up and join my team or start your own. The easiest way to donate is to go on the website. Your name and donation amount will be listed on the website unless you wish to remain anonymous.

Visit the website at <https://events.crophungerwalk.org/2022/marsha-morris/donate>. Thanks so much!

BCI will be running Sacred Ground sessions throughout this year and into next year in various locations. The September into October sessions are full from the responses BCI received in the questionnaire. BCI opened an additional location to accommodate all of the respondents. There will be 8 week sessions, starting in September of 2022 into June of 2023. We will have groups of 8 people per session to allow for maximum ability to interact within the sessions.

BCI will secure other locations, depending on the responses they receive from parishioners on signing up for sessions during the designated months. BCI will also accommodate anyone who wants to do zoom sessions due to their parish location or for other reasons. Please do not feel restricted due to the location of your parish. BCI will provide zoom options for you to attend the sessions. Feel free to use the following link to get additional information about Sacred Ground prior to your sessions: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground/>.

The following sessions will be running throughout this year and into next year:

September through the first week of November of 2022 – (both sessions are full but if we receive additional requests or get cancellations for those sessions we will make every effort to secure another location and/or another time that will work for an additional session) The locations, thus far, are St. Thomas on Thursday evenings at 6:30 and Monday evenings at Calvary Church at 6:30.

November 2022 into January 2023 (we will of course avoid sessions during the week of Christmas. (St. Thomas, Oakmont on Thursday evenings and a second location on Tuesday evenings). ■

Beware of Email Scams!

Always be careful when you check your email since scams are on the rise again. Never give out your personal information. Your bank, utility companies, the Social Security Administration, and the IRS will never contact you for that information. Emails that appear to come from Rector, and requests “a favor” or gift cards are still happening. Don’t respond, simply delete it. Any email from Calvary always uses @calvarypgh.org, never gmail.com. ■

Dear Rev. Jensen:

Warmest greetings in the name of our precious Lord.

GREAT ISSUES: DEMOCRACY THREATENED: WILL YOUR VOTE COUNT?

The Church of the Redeemer invites you to attend a forum featuring two experts on the critical issues of voter eligibility and election regulation. With the pending election in November, this will be a very timely and meaningful discussion. There is no charge to attend, and the presentation will be followed with a reception. Please join us!

Jessie Allen is a professor of law at the University of Pittsburgh. Her interest in voting rights dates from her litigation practice at national public interest organizations prior to joining the legal academy. As a senior attorney for the Advancement Project, she litigated voting rights cases in swing states during the 2008 presidential election. Before that, as a staff attorney at the Brennan Center for Justice, she focused on challenging state laws that bar voting because of criminal conviction.

Jonathan Cervas is a post-doctoral fellow at Carnegie Mellon's Institute of Politics and Strategy. His research focuses on inequalities in American political institutions and how they result in disparity among voters. He has assisted three federal courts in cases relating to redistricting and racial minority voting rights. He has also served as a redistricting consultant to the Pennsylvania Legislative Reapportionment Commission in 2021, and most recently as a Special Master, redrawing New York State's Senate and Congressional districts.
