MUSICAL NOTES

Alan Lewis is in Atlanta, Georgia, today, playing a recital at the Cathedral of St. Philip.

Next Sunday, November 3, at 5 p.m., the Choir, joined by a chamber orchestra, presents the Requiem by Gabriel Fauré, as the musical nucleus of our annual Requiem liturgy. This piece, though first published as a concert work, was actually conceived to meet the pastoral needs of Fauré's parish, and grew over some years of use into its finished form. The composer described it as "dominated from beginning to end by a very human feeling of faith in eternal rest." It serves the needs of the liturgy beautifully, providing music of radiance and comfort in the context of grief and recollection, as we commend the souls of all the faithful departed to the eternal mercies of God. Please join us.

MUSICAL NOTES

Herbert Howells (1882-1983) began his musical life assisting his father at the organ of their Baptist church, and soon became a chorister and assisting organist for the town's Anglican parish. He remained deeply involved with church-music in his youth, but gravitated away in the direction of composition and pedagogy; he was a deeply influential teacher, part of the faculty of the Royal College of Music in London from 1920 (just eight years after his own matriculation there) until 1979. Almost by accident, during World War II, he fell back into church-music, deputizing for the Organist of St. John's College, Cambridge; his time back in the orbit of daily chapel services propelled him into a new compositional phase, with a long series of commissions for churches and collegiate chapels all over the country. Behold, O God, Our Defender, was completed on Christmas Day, 1952, on a commission for the Coronation Service of Queen Elizabeth II, in which it served as the Introit.

Next Sunday, November 3, at 5 p.m., the Choir, joined by a chamber orchestra, presents the Requiem by Gabriel Fauré, as the musical nucleus of our annual Requiem liturgy. This piece, though first published as a concert work, was actually conceived to meet the pastoral needs of Fauré's parish, and grew over some years of use into its finished form. The composer described it as "dominated from beginning to end by a very human feeling of faith in eternal rest." It serves the needs of the liturgy beautifully, providing music of radiance and comfort in the context of grief and recollection, as we commend the souls of all the faithful departed to the eternal mercies of God. Please join us.

The Café is also looking for baked sweets to serve to bazaar shoppers. To volunteer or donate, contact Wendy Lomicka at wenlom@gmail.com This year, the Café will provide recyclable cups for hot beverages it serves. Cups returned to the collection box will be recycled through Dart Recycla-Pak program. Shoppers can bring their own re-usable cups to purchase Café beverages.

New Albs for Acolytes

This year we would like to refresh the albs (robes) worn by our acolytes in order to provide them with albs that fit well and are comfortable so that we can better “worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.” (Psalm 96:9) We have identified albs that match much of what we currently have, are comfortable, and will wear well over time. Each alb will cost $140; we are looking to purchase 15. The total cost will be $2,100. If you would like to contribute, please make a check to Calvary Church with a line in the memo that reads, “Acolyte Robes.” If you have any questions, please contact The Rev. Neil Raman at nraman@calvarypgh.org

Holy Baptism

The sacrament of Holy Baptism will be offered at the 11 o'clock services on All Saints' Sunday, November 3, 2019, and on the First Sunday after the Epiphany, January 12, 2020. If you, or someone you know, desires to partake in this sacrament, please contact the Reverend Neil Raman (nraman@calvarypgh.org or 412.661.0120, ext. 112) as soon as possible, so that the appropriate preparation and arrangements can be made.

A team of 4-5 men or young adults are needed on a Saturday morning to load furniture and make deliveries to 3-4 needy Pittsburgh area families.

The next date for the Calvary team is Saturday, November 9, 2019. Volunteers are needed. If you want to add your name to the list of available volunteers please contact either Matt Muldoon at 412.362.1780 or mattmuldoon@msn.com. or Gary Abbs at 412.963.8124 or gary\_abbs@comcast.net. If you are a regular volunteer already, please let Matt or Gary know of your availability.

Also, volunteering for Off-the-Floor Pittsburgh can be used by high school students to fulfill their community service requirements. However, depending on the student's age, we ask that a parent or other adult accompany the student.

You can learn more about Off-the-Floor Pittsburgh by visiting their website at www.offthefloorpgh.org. or by "liking" them on Facebook. Remember that Off-the-Floor Pittsburgh accepts donations of used furniture. You can arrange pick-up by calling 412.926.5053 or visiting their website. Thank you for your consideration of this very worthwhile ministry.

The Sheldon Calvary Camp service, an informal celebration of the Holy Eucharist, will be TODAY at 3 p.m., in the Refectory. ## Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed Sunday, November 3, at 5 p.m.

The Calvary Choir, joined by a chamber orchestra, presents the Requiem by Gabriel Fauré, as the musical nucleus of our annual Requiem liturgy. This piece, though first published as a concert work, was actually conceived to meet the pastoral needs of Fauré's parish, and grew over some years of use into its finished form. The composer described it as "dominated from beginning to end by a very human feeling of faith in eternal rest." It serves the needs of the liturgy beautifully, providing music of radiance and comfort in the context of grief and recollection, as we commend the souls of all the faithful departed to the eternal mercies of God. Please join us.

Anyone wishing to have names included in the Necrology is asked to contact Kim Pieratt at kpieratt@calvarypgh.org no later than Monday, October 28. The names will be printed and read during Communion at the 11 o'clock service on the morning of All Saints Sunday, and as part of the Intercessions at the Requiem that afternoon.

November Lecture

“A Home and a Hub in Wilkinsburg: The Singer Mansion and the Pennsylvania Railroad Station.” Anne Elise Morris, president of the Wilkinsburg Historical Society, will present an illustrated talk on two borough landmarks – the Gothic Revival sandstone house which features a circular staircase, carved woodwork and Italian marble fireplaces built in the 1860s for iron and steel magnate John F. Singer and the ongoing restoration of the long-vacant Beaux Arts train station of 1916 which is expected to be completed in the fall of 2019 and returned to community use.

Please join us on Friday, November 1, 2019 at 7:30 p.m. at East Liberty Presbyterian Church.

If you are still irked about losing that hour of sleep last March when most of the country went on Daylight saving time, here's some good news - you get it back next Sunday. Daylight saving time ends at 2 a.m. on Sunday, November 3. You'll need to set your clocks back (“fall back”) one hour before going to bed on Saturday.

It's a good idea to REPLACE the batteries in all of your smoke and CO2 detectors the same weekend.

Calvary Movie Night: Thursday, November 21, 2019

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our LORD, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Sirach [35:12-17]

Give to the Most High as he has given to you, and as generously as you can afford. For the LORD is the one who repays, and he will repay you sevenfold. Do not offer him a bribe, for he will not accept it; and do not rely on a dishonest sacrifice; for the LORD is the judge, and with him there is no partiality. He will not show partiality to the poor; but he will listen to the prayer of one who is wronged. He will not ignore the supplication of the orphan, or the widow when she pours out her complaint.

Reader: The Word of the LORD.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 84:1-6

- 1 How dear to me is your dwelling, O LORD of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God.
- 2 The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; * by the side of your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.
- 3 Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
they will always be praising you.
- 4 Happy are the people whose strength is in you! *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way.
- 5 Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, * for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
- 6 They will climb from height to height, *
and the God of gods will reveal himself in Zion.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: * as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy [4:6-8, 16-18]

I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the LORD, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. At my first defense no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! But the LORD stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The LORD will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Reader: The Word of the LORD.

Congregation: Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to Luke

[18:9-14]

Response before the Gospel: Glory to you, LORD Christ.

Jesus told his parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and regarded others with contempt: "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, was praying thus, 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: thieves, rogues, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of all my income.' But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even look up to heaven, but was beating his breast and saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' I tell you, this man went down to his home justified rather than the other; for all who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted."

Response after the Gospel: Praise to you, LORD Christ.
